

C. N. is a HempsteadWorks success story. She came to this office unemployed and in need of career counseling and to upgrade her skills, so that she could become employable and pursue a career in Medical Billing. She attended the following workshops offered at HempsteadWorks: Microsoft Word , Excel, Resume Development, New Job Transition, Job Search Techniques, Job Contacts and Networking, Getting Started with LinkedIn, Mastering LinkedIn, Interview and Salary Negotiation, Job Retention and Networking, Beginning Social Media, Facebook for Jobseekers and Challenges and Obstacles of 2016 Job Seekers.

She was eager to learn and take advantage of every opportunity that became available to her. She was then enrolled in the Medical Billing Specialist Program at Hunter Business School, where she maintained a GPA of 4.0 and learned the necessary skills that subsequently helped her obtain employment.

As a result of her efforts she obtained a position as a Medical billing coordinator.
